About Us

What is Cornwall Cricket?

Cornwall Cricket Board (CCB) exists to make cricket accessible, available, and enjoyable for people in the county. It is one of the 39 County Cricket Boards that make up the England & Wales Cricket Board (ECB) and is responsible for all ECB programmes in Cornwall.

Established in 1995, the Cornwall Cricket Board also promotes and develops the game of cricket in the entirety of Cornwall, serving as the governing body for the game in the county through partnerships with cricketing bodies and other appropriate agencies. The Board became a Company Limited by Guarantee in 2011 and is in the process of gaining charitable status. It trades under the name of Cornwall Cricket Board.

Cornwall Cricket Board is responsible for all participation and growth activities, supporting recreational cricket, county age group cricket, and talent pathway programmes across the County. The Cornwall Cricket Board works across a variety of cricket leagues, member associations, educational establishments, facility providers, clubs, community groups, and other organisations to deliver its vision and strategy.

Vision and Strategic Priorities

“To inspire a generation to say “cricket is a game for me”, by aspiring to be the healthiest and most inclusive team sport in Cornwall”

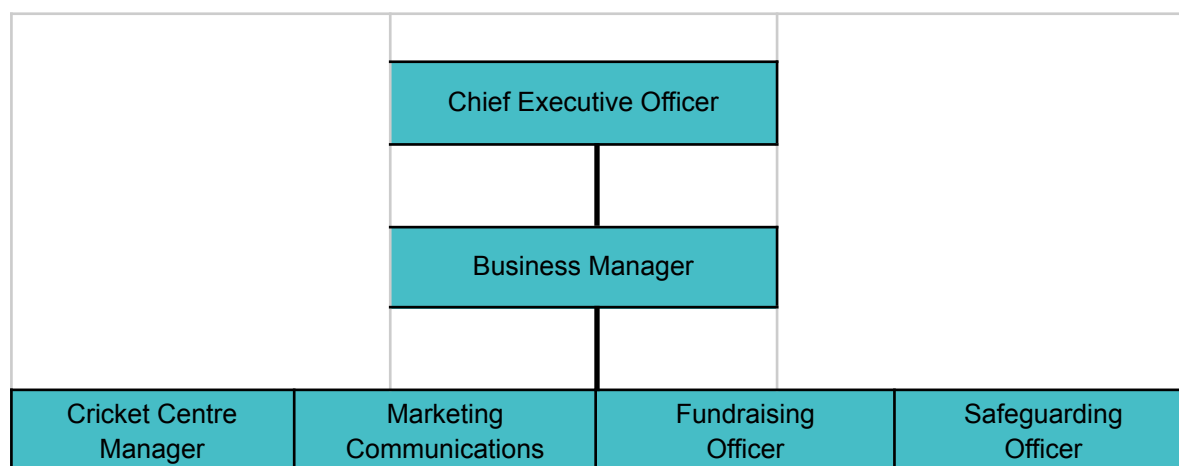

The Strategic Priorities for Cornwall Cricket Board from 2025-2029 are:

- Grow the game.
To expand participation in all aspects of the sport, help clubs and organisations grow their capacity and remove barriers to participation.
- Be the best.
To create relationships, pathways and development opportunities for talented individuals in all fields of the sport to reach their potential.
- Build for the future.
To ensure we have the funding, facilities and governance needed to develop the game now and in the future.

Fundamentally, we believe that cricket is a powerful way of connecting & developing communities, building friendships and helping people to achieve through being involved in our wonderful game.

Business Operations: Staff Organogram

Role Description

Purpose

- Develop and maintain corporate governance frameworks, ensuring the organisation complies with the UK Corporate and Charities Governance as well as the National Governing Body, County Partnership Agreement (CPA) compliance.
- Ensure company policies, licences, insurance documents, and compliance registers are kept updated. Cornwall Cricket Board is proud of the positive impact it makes on cricket and the wider community.

As a Business Manager, you'll support the Cornwall Cricket Board of directors by ensuring compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, organising effective governance frameworks and promoting transparency and accountability. To be effective, you'll need a strong working knowledge of the laws and regulations that impact our operations.

A core part of your duties will involve acting as a key communication link between the board of directors and where relevant the company executive management team. This role is central to maintaining effective internal processes, coordinating communication, supporting management, and contributing to a positive organisational culture. Done well, it's the role that will serve as the glue holding the wider team together.

Key Objectives

Governance

- Advise the chair and the board to ensure they are operating in accordance with the rules and regulations of the ECB, Companies House and the Charities Commission and any other regulatory body.
- Manage statutory compliance, including maintaining statutory registers, ensuring proper record keeping, e.g., employee information, contract registers, HR compliance.
- Coordinate board events, and travel arrangements as required.
- File statutory documents, databases internally and with Companies House and the Charity Commission.
- Monitor changes to legislation and regulation affecting the company's operations and advise and implement accordingly.

- Liaise with external advisers, e.g., legal, HR, auditors, Charities Commission.

Management and Personal Development

- To manage the business operations team and work closely with the CEO.
- To manage the coordination of staff recruitment and HR services, including the organisation of DBS, right to work, contracts, onboarding, maintenance of performance reviews, staff wellbeing, training, the Health and Safety policies and the company's pension scheme.
- Support initiatives, e.g., organisational culture and internal communications.

Planning and Organising

- Support the chair in ensuring the effective operation of the board, including advising on procedures and meeting conduct.
- Organise and administer board, committee and annual general meetings, including preparing agenda's, distributing papers, taking minutes and ensuring decisions are implemented.

Administration

- Facilitate good communication between the board, its committees, senior management and stakeholders.
- Act as the first point of contact for internal and external enquiries, email and phone calls.
- Assist with basic financial management tasks e.g., processing invoices, financial records to support the work of the Finance Manager.
- To act as CCB's Disciplinary Officer responsible for the administration and organisation of disciplinary and appeals processes within the recreational game.
- To deliver any administration functions as required by, and that may arise within, the Cornwall Cricket Board e.g. holiday camps, pathway communications to clubs, players and opponents.

IT systems and processes

- To manage IT systems for the purposes of course bookings and the management of staff and volunteers, e.g., Cvent (Booking system), Club Affiliation and Accreditation Scheme, DBS, course bookings (coaching, umpiring, Safehands, holiday camps).

Delivery

- To deliver Equality Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) initiatives across the organisation, supporting the professional workforce and club development specifically around EDI compliance and development.
- To plan and coordinate events, e.g. volunteer awards and pathway player awards.

Person Specification

Essential

- To have a good understanding of EDI within the workplace and in community organisations.
- Excellent verbal and written skills.
- Strong interpersonal skills and the ability to build effective relationships at all levels.
- Proactive, flexible, empathetic and enthusiastic, with excellent interpersonal and relationship-building skills.
