

Cornwall Cricket Board Disability Cricket Code of Conduct

Coaches Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct simplifies, but does not replace, the ECB General Conduct Regulations and the Cornwall Cricket Board Code of Conduct, both of which can be found on the Cornwall Cricket Board website:
<https://cornwallcricket.co.uk/about-us.html>

Role Model

Set a professional example when preparing and working with the players, parents/carers and fellow coaches in a manner that is expected when representing Cornwall Cricket. Always meet and greet the players, parents/carers with a smile and warm welcome.

Pride

Be proud to represent Cornwall Disability Cricket. Ensure that the player experience is built on pride, enjoyment and mutual respect.

Relationships

Foster good relationships with players, parents/carers and other coaches through good communication, honesty, trust and empathy

Culture

Build, instil and uphold a culture that encompasses positivity, creativity, desire, integrity and independence. Disability cricket sessions at S1s, S9s, Champion Clubs and schools can change lives and, in doing so, this is the greatest reward one can get as a coach.

Disability Cornwall Cricket Activities

Cornwall Cricket Board expects high standards from those attending and delivering its activities and any failure to adhere to the Code of Conduct may result in removal or restriction from those activities..

For queries, concerns or support you should contact the Disability Development Officer David Painter (ddo@cornwallcricket.co.uk) or the Cornwall Cricket Safeguarding Officer Jane Law (safeguarding@cornwallcricket.co.uk)
